

watch Greek sailors from the ships taken over by the allies pass in review before King Constantine. As the parade ended and the King took his departure amid cheers, several shouts of "Down with Venizelos!" and "Down with the allies!" were heard. A Greek politician, a supporter of Venizelos, was recognized by several in the crowd, set upon and badly beaten without interference by the police.

Shortly afterward French marines, landed at Piræus on reports that riots were threatening, reached the Capital and took possession of the Municipal Theatre. A great crowd, formed partly of Greek reservists, swarmed about the marines and shouted insulting remarks. The French got their machine guns ready for action, but to avoid trouble withdrew inside the theatre.

CROWDS DRIVEN BACK BY THE GREEK TROOPS.

Greek troops appeared and drove the crowds back, establishing a cordon about the square. The crowd then split into several sections. One band demonstrated before the British Legation, where a man who shouted "Down with England!" was arrested by the legation guards.

Another crowd obtained an American flag. With the flag at its head, the crowd marched to the American Legation, cheering the United States. The American Minister was at the Athenian Club, but the demonstrators left behind a communication calling upon him to protest in the name of the United States, against the recent steps taken by the allies. This was signed by a deputation of Gouanarist reservists. They were informed to-day that the communication would be transmitted to Washington.

The allies have detained 25 carloads of ammunition at Volos, in Thessaly, which was destined for the interior of Thessaly. It is suspected that the ammunition was being shipped to enemies of the allied powers.

Greek troops and marines have been ordered out by the War Minister, Gen. Dracou, to guard every approach to the Post Office Square, where the greatest crowds have gathered. This measure was taken to prevent, if possible, any clash between Greek civilians and the French marines.

The Greek Government is alive to the fact that Greece's fate hangs on the prevention of further measures being taken by the French commander, Vice Admiral du Rournet.

Upon orders of the French commander, the allies have taken over the Greek battleships Kilkis (formerly the U. S. S. Idaho), the Lemnos (formerly the U. S. S. Mississippi) and the Averoff. Allied crews were put upon the vessels, and the Greek crews were landed and sent to Athens. The entire Greek fleet is now in the hands of the allies, the other vessels having been taken over on Oct. 11.

At the King's review of marines, Admiral Damianos read an order of the day praising the men for their loyalty. The King then addressed the officers about him and addressed them. He expressed pride that they had secured offers of money and honors and had remained faithful to their country. He said he would stand by them, no matter what consequences their loyalty might entail.

KING SAYS HE IS READY TO GIVE ALL.

The King issued the following order of the day:

Officers, sailors! In these hours, when stricken and with bleeding hearts each new moment from new wounds deep in our souls, which so short a time ago were proud in a united and victorious Greece, my Government has been obliged to order you to leave the ships upon which you brought the news of the freeing of our liberated brothers. You came with tortured hearts and eyes wet with tears, every man faithful to his oath to the side of your King.

I thank you and congratulate you, oh, my faithful sailors! I thank you, not only as King and chief of the fleet, but as a representative of the fatherland you love so much, to which you have given so much, for which you are ready to give and suffer all.

May our hopes soon be realized and may the hour soon come when you will be able to return to your ships. The holy icons that have protected you in the past will protect you in the future, and the glorious flag, once more caught by the winds of the Greek seas, will bring hope and consolation wherever Greek hearts beat for nation and King.

AVIATOR GRAVELY HURT IN FIFTEEN-FOOT FALL

Student at Wright School Has Mishap While Preparing for Licensing Flight.

MINEOLA, L. I., Oct. 18.—T. C. Brown, student aviator at the Wright Aviation School at the Garden City aviation field was hurt here fatally to-day. He was to have flown before the evening committee of the Aero Club this afternoon and took out a Wright biplane for a practice flight. He had risen but fifteen feet when the machine tipped sideways and one wing hit the ground.

Brown was hurled from his seat and landed on his head. His skull was fractured.

Privates Reynolds and Jenkins, of the First Aero Corps, picked him up. He was hurried to the Nassau Hospital unconscious.

ROUMANIANS BEAT FALKENHAYN BACK IN TRANSYLVANIA

Resume Offensive South of Kronstadt—Save Their Own Lines in General Attack.

RUSSIANS NOW AIDING.

Big Force Rushed to Defend the Carpathian Passes, Is Report to London.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 17 (via London, Oct. 18).—Roumanian troops in the Prael region, south of Kronstadt, have resumed the offensive and are driving back the Teutonic forces on the Transylvania side of the border, says an official announcement issued late this evening.

Violent Teutonic attacks are in progress along the entire front in the Carpathians, but the entente lines have not been penetrated, the announcement adds.

All the military news from the Roumanian front is declared to be reassuring. LONDON, Oct. 18.—Telegraphing from the headquarters of Gen. von Falkenhayn, commander of the Teutonic forces in Transylvania, the correspondent of the Budapest Hiriap says that Roumanian troops are helping to defend the passes into Roumanian territory, according to a wireless dispatch from Berlin.

The Budapest As Est. according to the same authority, says the Roumanian intelligence service has detected the presence of formidable Russian forces at various points on the Roumanian and Hungarian frontiers.

SOFIA, Oct. 17 (via London, Oct. 18).—The War Office to-day issued the following statement regarding the Roumanian front:

"The situation on the Roumanian front is unchanged. Along the Danube there is quiet. In the Dobruja there was weak artillery shelling at Teutonic points. We disposed of two batteries and three battalions between Kujas Manut and Kujas."

"In his flight the enemy left behind him his guns and ammunition cases. There is quiet on the Black Sea coast."

PTICHUGRADE, Oct. 18.—Russian and Austro-German troops are now battling in heavy snows in the Carpathians and southward near the Roumanian frontier, where the Teutonic attempted to divide the Russian and Roumanian armies.

The War Office to-day announced the repulse of all Teutonic attacks south of Kermesene and also near Dornia Vatra.

North of Kormontzina, in fierce and obstinate fighting, all enemy counterattacks were repelled. Near Botschov the Teutonic also counter-attacked savagely but were halted by Russian fire.

BRITISH CRITICISM OF MAIL SEIZURES

The Manchester Guardian Says "Some of the Interference Is Merely Vexatious."

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Commenting upon the reply of the Entente allies to the American protest against interference with mails, the Manchester Guardian says that while the allies are acting within their legal rights, "we are extremely skeptical about the military value of the examination of inward mails from the United States. Merely vexatious, and we cannot conceive why German newspapers to the United States should be regarded as cogent."

"No doubt," correspondence might be carried on by that means, but the risk of injury to us is small and we can quite understand the vexation of Americans at this double or treble insurance at their expense."

ALL DEFENDERS DEAD WHEN FRENCH TOOK FORT

Officers and Men Killed by Shock of a Shell Which Didn't Penetrate Works.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES ENCLINCHING CHALLENGER, Oct. 18.—The most remarkable feat played by gunfire since the great battle of the Somme began resulted in the death of two German majors, several minor officers and twenty men garrisoning a steel reinforced blockhouse in Boven Wood.

They were killed outright by the shock of one of the great French 400 millimetre shells, which struck nearby, but in no way damaged their fort. This German blockhouse consisted of eight observation chambers and a machine gun tower.

French infantry went forward with a rush after a brief bombardment, surprised by the Germans' lack of resistance.

Inside they found the entire German garrison dead, and apparently only sleeping. The shock of the nearby explosion had been transmitted to the interior of the fort. The fort was large enough to hold 500 men.

steleow to be Resentenced to Death on Oct. 25.

ALBANY, Oct. 18.—The Court of Appeals to-day ordered that Charles E. Stielow, convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment, be taken before the Court Oct. 25 to be resentedenced.

GERMAN TROOPS RENEW DRIVES ON SOMME FRONTS

Violent Attack on South Side of River Follows Three on the North.

ENTER FRENCH TRENCH.

Immediately Driven Out With Great Loss, Says Paris War Office.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—German troops launched a violent attack against French positions south of the Somme at 5 o'clock this morning after a heavy bombardment.

A few German detachments reached the French first line trenches, but were all either killed or captured, the War Office announced. Another German attack was checked by screen fire.

The German assaults south of the Somme followed three heavy, unsuccessful attacks north of the river late last night. The Germans attempted to enter the French from those parts of Sully-Balmel captured in this week's fighting, but were repulsed with heavy losses, the French maintaining their positions.

South of the Avre and southeast of Rheims, French detachments cleaned up enemy trenches.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Notwithstanding a heavy downpour of rain, the British made progress at some points last night between the Albert-Bapaume Road and Les Boeufs, Gen. Haig reported to-day. Some prisoners were taken.

BEHLIN, Oct. 18 (via London).—French attacks in the region of Merval and Rancourt, north of the River Somme, were repulsed yesterday after hard fighting, says the official statement issued to-day by the British Army Headquarters Staff. British and French attacks near Thiepval, Courcellette and Bouchavesnes, the statement adds, also failed.

In the battle of Eaucourt L'Abbaye, it is officially announced, the German destructive fire reduced the British attack to failure at the outset. North of the Somme the artillery fire was intense.

ITALIAN CRUISER LIBIA TORPEDOED BY GERMANS

Seriously Damaged by Big Submarine in the Mediterranean, Says Berlin Wireless.

BERLIN, Oct. 18 (via wireless to Sayville, L. I.). Oct. 18.—The Italian protected cruiser Libia was severely damaged by a torpedo from a German submarine in the Mediterranean on Oct. 7, it was officially announced to-day.

The Libia displaces 3,740 tons and carries a crew of about 800 men. She was built for Turkey, under the name of the both sides of Euxine, and was under construction at the Genoa shipbuilding yards when the Italian-Turkish war broke out. Italy seized her.

MRS. W. J. GAYNOR SINGS TO-NIGHT AT BAZAAR

Mrs. William J. Gaynor, widow of the former Mayor, will sing several Irish songs, including "Killarney," at the Irish Relief Fund Bazaar, in Madison Square Garden, to-night.

Last night was Ulster night at the bazaar, dedicated to those of Ulster origin who were killed or made prisoners during the recent rebellion, chief among them being John McNeill, President of the Irish Volunteers, now in prison.

Mme. Madaski presented to the bazaar a doll she named the Irish Princess, dressed by herself from pieces of her original costume as in the opera of "Tristan and Isolde."

Other exhibits are Bonnie Prince Charlie's watch and the dagger he wore at the Battle of Culloden. Also between the rows of booths have been named after distinguished Americans of Irish descent. There are President Jackson Street, Thomas Lynch and Charles Carroll Avenue, Commodore Perry Plaza and Gov. Dongan Street.

To-day Mrs. Agnes Newman, sister of Sir Roger Casement, with a bevy of Irish beauties, intend invading Wall Street on behalf of the Bazaar.

Saturday night will be an Irish-Jewish night.

AUSTRIAN SMOKERS HIT.

Only One Cigar Daily Can Be Sold to Customers.

VIENNA, Oct. 18.—The Austro-Hungarian tobacco monopoly will soon issue orders to its stores, which sell exclusively all tobacco dispensed in the monopoly, forbidding the sale of more than one cigar daily to one customer.

The sale of tobacco, cigars or cigarettes to minors under sixteen will be forbidden.

CARSON IN THE CABINET-ROUSED ANGER IN IRELAND

Redmond Says This Act by Asquith Made It Appear That Home Rule Was Betrayed.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—John Redmond, Irish leader, met the demand for conscription in Ireland with a counter-demand for home rule in Ireland, in an address in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Any attempt to enforce conscription in Ireland would be fruitless, Redmond declared, so long as England maintains martial law and a Unionist Government against the will of the Irish people.

He said that the inclusion of Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, in the coalition government when the Cabinet was reconstructed meant to thousands of Irishmen the belief that they had been betrayed. He said that he had prayed that Premier Asquith leave Ireland out of the coalition. The Premier had refused and the result was fatal.

Redmond made these declarations in support of his resolution placing responsibility for the recent unhappy events in Ireland largely upon the system of government maintained in the island.

Chief Secretary for Ireland Henry Duke responded that it was impossible for the Government to accept the "remedies" proposed by Redmond.
